

Difficulty Areas

Difficulty using a pencil, crayon, or a marker to write, color, or draw

Difficulty fastening closures to clothing, such as buttons, snaps, zippers, and buckles for independent dressing

Difficulty in tying shoelaces

Difficulty using utensils for independence at meal-time

Difficulty in manipulating food containers, such opening snack bags, opening a milk or juice carton, or placing a straw in a juice box

Difficulty cutting with scissors

Difficulty squeezing out and applying glue and toothpaste